

Name: _____

Date: _____

Your and You're

Directions: Circle your or you're to complete the sentence correctly.

1. I think (your, you're) dribbling skills have improved since last season.
2. (Your, You're) right!
3. Will (your, you're) mother drop you off at the birthday party?
4. (Your, You're) going to have fun on the rollercoaster.
5. The repairman said (your, you're) computer is fixed.
6. (Your, You're) teacher said (your, you're) really doing well in math class.
7. The crash damaged (your, you're) car door beyond repair.
8. (Your, You're) baseball uniform has grass stains all over it.
9. Dad asked when (your, you're) going to clean (your, you're) bedroom.
10. The dog ate (your, you're) homework.

Directions: Write your own sentences using the homonyms provided.

(your) _____

(you're) _____

(your) _____

(you're) _____
